

THANKS...

The following individuals and organizations are helping AMSEA to keep marine safety training widely available.

1999 Sustaining memberships

F/V Cloud Nine, Sitka

1999 Supporting memberships

SEAPRO, Ketchikan

F/V Coral Lee, Sitka

F/V EH, Sitka

F/V Rocky B, Sitka

Southeast Alaska Regional Health Consortium (SEARHC)

Southern Region EMS Council, Anchorage

Vessel Safety Corp., Rhode Island

F/V Kariel, Sitka

H. Daniel Hull, Anchorage

F/V Sequoia, Sitka

Coastal Safety Services, Sitka

U.S. Forest Service, Chatham Area

Dan Russell, Seattle

F/V St. Lázaria, Sitka

F/V Defiant, Petersburg

Maritime Enterprises, Homer

F/V Flagship, Sitka

1999 Donor memberships

City of Sitka

Betty Oakey, USCG Auxiliary, Greenbrae, CA

F/V Sea Miner, Haines

Recent Service & Equipment Donations

F/V Sequoia, Sitka

USCG Airstation, Sitka

Southeast Ocean Survival, Ketchikan

Ocean Safety Services, Sitka

Crosset Foundation, Seattle

Thanks also to the more than 100 individual members of AMSEA. Your support is vital to keeping AMSEA's network of instructors providing marine and boating safety instruction.

AMSEA Board of Directors

Jim Herbert, president
AVTEC, Seward

Dolly Garza, vice-president
Marine Advisory Program, Sitka

Don Lane, secretary-treasurer
North Pacific Fishermen's Assoc., Homer

Donn Tracy
ADF&G Kodiak

Hank Pennington
Technical Advisor, Kodiak

Chuck Lamica
Public Safety Academy, Sitka

Paula Cullenberg
North Pacific Fisheries Observer Trainer
Program, Anchorage

Sue Hargis
USCG, Juneau

Shawn Sorenson
SEARHC, Sitka

Mike Keiffer
Alaska Native Area Health Service,
Anchorage

Larry Bussone
Dept. of Health & Social Services,
Juneau

Jennifer Lincoln
NIOSH, Anchorage

John Winther
Petersburg Vessel Owners' Assoc.,
Petersburg

Sue Jorgensen

Marine Safety Update

USGC, Juneau