

Trainer/Researcher11/12/2021*Purpose

To provide and coordinate relevant, experiential, hands-on training to help people survive in remote marine and wilderness environments.

Responsibilities

- Plan, develop, coordinate, promote and instruct individual marine safety and shore survival workshops in schools and for appropriate audiences based on personal vessel experience.
- Coordinate and instruct first aid/CPR workshops.
- Back up to assist Gear Manager to provide training supplies and equipment for instructors and gear maintenance.
- Interacts positively with instructor network to problem solve and provide assistance and planning and to provide AMSEA instructors with harmonious guidance in working with AMSEA policies and procedures.
- Assist with database record keeping of trainees.
- Assists in collection and process training reports from nationwide instructors
- Communicate with instructors, students, host agencies, and the general public.
- Assists in preparation of reports to AMSEA Director, Board and grant/contracting entities.
- Seeks research opportunities and conducts literature searches.
- Other duties as assigned that help fulfill our mission of reducing injuries and deaths as per our mission statement.
- Works closely with all staff and supervised by Executive Director.

Desired Skills / Experience

- Broad vessel experience especially in commercial fishing.
- Effective oral and written communication skills
- Teaching experience and/or education background preferred
- Basic computer skills including use of Microsoft Office programs, Wufoo and other standard software used at AMSEA.
- Academic background
- Background in outdoor recreation / experience in wild lands and waters
- Able to lift 50 lbs.
- Outgoing, energetic, personable, enthusiastic, strong work ethic, plays well with others.